

As a citizen of the United States and as A resident of the state of Indiana, I have a right not to be bothered by unwanted phone calls and I like it that way and wish for it to remain that way.